Madison Female Institute.

Boarding and Day School for Young Ladies

Thirty-sixth year opens September 15th under the management of Mrs. A. R. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd, late of Hamilton College, Lexington, Ky. Buildings commodious; hot and cold baths and closets; recitation-rooms large, entirely above ground, well lighted and ventilated. Grounds consist of fourteen acres, affording ample space for tennis court and other out-door amusements; commandingly located on a hill overlooking the beautiful little city of Richmond, within a few minutes walk of the business portion, thus combining the advantages of a city with the retirement of a country seat. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd will be supported by an able corps of teachers, graduates of our best colleges and universities. Music faculty complete; of acknowledged ability. Boarding department limited to thirty boarders, thus affording opportunity for social intercourse between faculty and students in sitting-room and parlors, impossible in large boarding schools. For catalogues and all information concerning the school address

TESTIMONIALS.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 30th, 1894.
It gives me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with the character and work of Mrs. A. R. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd, and that I think the Madison Female Institute very fortunate in securing their service in its management. They are both ladies of culture, executive ability and of skill in the art of teaching. No parents in Kentucky or elsewhere need hesitate to place daughters under their care or instruction.

To whom it may concern: Having learned that my friends Mrs. Anna R. Bourne and Miss Alice Lloyd have engaged to take charge of Madison Female Institute, it gives me pleasure to say that they are in my opinion in every way qualified for the responsible position. These ladies have had the opportunity of learning the best methods of teaching in some of the most celebrated seminaries in the land. This combined with rare ability and some ten or twelve years experience in the schoolroom, gives assurance of success in their undertaking. Mrs. Bourne and Miss Lloyd as Associate Principals will be aided by a corps of able teachers; and from my knowledge of their ability, energy and Christian culture, I am sure they will do good service in the cause of Christian education. In this expectation I commend them and their enterprise to the patronage of the public.

INSTITUTE NOTES.

A rousing success, over 150 enrolled, and still they come.

Miss Sara Taylor is a handsome lady member from Ripley.

C. B. Evans came over again yesterday to remain until the finish.

Miss Mattie Sheekner is an earnest attendant at the present session.

Miss Irene Gromer is a new member from near Carlisle, and a promising young teacher.

Miss Ella Johnson of Red Oak came in yesterday and will remain until the end of the session.

J. J. Brown, a teacher of fifteen years' experience, came in from Sterling Township yesterday.

The Stephan brothers are here as they always are, and they are numbered among Brown county's best teachers.

The lecture last evening by Hon. J. C. Leggett of Ripley was an able effort, and many were the compliments paid him for his effort.

Mr. E. H. Kirkpatrick of Russellville came in as much of a ladies' man as he was one year ago, and he looks just as youthful.

The contest for the location of the Institute will probably be a warm one as every town in the county desires its location at that point.

Professor Alley came over fresh from his work in Adams county. The Professor made himself the friend of every teacher in Adams.

Dr. Nelson will lecture tomorrow evening on "The Ghosts I Have Seen," and we may expect something that will be highly interesting and instructive.

Last night the teachers had the benefit of an excursion up the river, probably to Manchester, and music was furnished by the orchestra for the entertainment of the crowd.

J. W. Campbell came down from Sardinia to attend the Institute and represent the Publishing Company of A. N. Kellogg. He will teach at St. Martin's the coming winter.

The nomination of officers took place yesterday afternoon. The only contest will probably be for the Treasurership, Mr. Ed. Scott of Pinecastle and Mr. A. J. Kirshadden being aspirants.

The Big Four Route will have another of their popular excursions to Niagara Falls August 14th via the Lake Shore and New York Central Railways. Solid trains of Wagner Palace Sleeping Cars, Reclining Chair Cars and elegant coaches through to the Falls without change. Side trips to Lake Chautauqua, Toronto and Thousand Islands. Call on C. and O. ticket agent for small pamphlet with full particulars.

Many who have noticed the beautifully lighted stores of Messrs. W. C. Miner, J. H. and J. C. Pecor have wondered what new style electric lamp they were using. The fact is, however, that the light is made from plain every day gas with the Welsbach incandescent burner and it can be fitted to any gas fixture in five minutes. The Welsbach consumes about half as much gas as the ordinary tip burner and gives nearly four times as much light and no flickering—absolutely a steady soft, white light that is grateful to the most sensitive eye. For prices and full particulars call on Ballenger the Jeweler.

Notice to Taxpayers!

On all Taxes, state and county, not paid before the

First of November, 1894, there will be a penalty of 6 per cent. added.

The law makes this imperative. Don't delay the matter. Please settle as soon as possible.

The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS,
(MONK LEWIS.)

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Maria Monk" and books of that character.
